Plan Ahead for Fast & Simple Payroll Processing

A little planning can go a long way this season. When it comes to seamless and efficient payroll processing, our Client Consultants have experience working with businesses of all sizes.

Check out our complete list of payroll processing and HR services on the next page, and call us today - from paperless payroll to tax filing to HR services, we can do it all. Let us help you save time this summer.

DMPS Offers Payroll Processing Your Way

There's nothing easier than reaching out to DMPS, and signing up for our services. We listen to your concerns and specifically tailor plans to meet your needs.

Our Client Consultants will work with you to customize a payroll processing system for your business, complete with the necessary training for you and your payroll employees.

New Payroll Employees & Contacts?

When you get started, you'll be provided with comprehensive training which covers all of our payroll and human resources services.

And whenever you have a new payroll employee or client contact, just give us a call. We'll setup a training session covering all of our services.

No matter how long you've been a client, you can always call Customer Service, anytime, to set up a "refresher" training appointment - we're always available.

Give Us a Call!

We don't believe in the automated voicemail approach to customer service, and you'll never have a problem reaching someone to help you - we're ready and willing to assist our clients.

We're always available to help find ways to make life easier for our clients. Each time you call, you'll reach a live individual who ensures your call is dealt with professionally and in a timely manner.

As any busy payroll professional will tell you, when the checks are processed, the real work begins. There's quarterly reporting, tax filing, benefits administration, as well as maintaining employee records.

Our 2,000+ clients agree, turning over payroll processing to the pros saves you time, money, and frustration - and we can do that for you too.

If you need help processing payroll, or have questions getting started with DMPS, call us today. We're standing by to serve you! ☐

LendEDU, a student loan refinancing website, surveyed 1,238 people to see what they'd give up for a 10% raise. Here are the results:

88% - would give up watching "Game of Thrones" for life

73% - alcohol for five years

53% - social media for three years

50% - movies for three years

47% - caffeine for two years

35% - the right to vote for life

18% - a health plan for five years

12% - their partner or spouse, and

9% - their child's (or future child's) right to vote for life.
